

18.5V filter trace on female supplied with 18V

18V removed

Jumper

and is disconnected from input by cutting trace near U2

Grounds are made directly to metal ground plane to avoid coupling on 18V

Original components are added and replaced by transformer, which fits on existing pads...

Boards soldered together on back side by laying wire along seam and

LC filter leads directly to next stage